TECHNICAL EVENTS

CASH PRIZE
UPTO 1.6 LAKHS

We propose to carry out a plethora of events ranging from code lover's event to developer's art related to web-design, social initiatives, app-design.
The details of the events we propose to be conducted under this category are like: -

HACKATHON

Can 24 hours be less time ?
We will find out.

24 hours, nerve wrecking problem statements and an environment full of code and logic, hackthon will provide a platform to the participants to make a website, android app or a desktop app in limited time period based on a problem related to real life.

TECHNICAL EVENTS

TECHATHLON

The event is an ultimate test of codes and logic and consists of three events which can be played either individually or as a part of techathlon wherein the cumulative scores will be added to decide the winners. The events are:

- Code Stumble : Think, Code, Decipher, Repeat
  The event will consist of 2 rounds. In the first round, participants are required to write a code given on the problem in such a way that it is hard to decipher. In the following round the codes would be randomized & participants would have to decipher the and tell the output.

- Bug spot : HIT the bugs out.
  Participants are required to find out bugs from the code given to them in the least time possible.

- Algo writing : Charmed by Ola and Uber's application implementation. May Dijkstra bless you.
  Participants would be given a problem statement, and they are required to write an algorithm to solve it on the paper. They will be judged on the basis of their efficiency and accuracy.

TECHNICAL EVENTS

CODE RUSH

Try to be In Time.

The problem statements would have an edge as they would be deciphered. Participants would have to master cryptography, decipher the problem and then come up with a solution in the least time possible. They will be judged on the basis of time and whether they passed the test cases

Tight your buckle to buffle, it's called a game of Shuffle

CODE SHUFFLE

Code shuffle would give a different angle to the technical events as the code would be given to the students beforehand, but in a shuffled manner. The sequence of the commands would be different. The participants are required to find out the correct sequence and come up with the final code and the correct output.

Managerial Events

Worth 85K

We propose to carry out a range of events for enhancing managing, marketing and operation skills of individual/groups because the perspective of our college not only involve technical field but also managerial field.

The details of the events we propose to be conducted under this category are like: –

Jobs

Mocks are better than idle talks.

The best way to do a thing is to prepare for it beforehand. With the event Jobs, the participants would be getting a one hand experience with mock interview and selection process, enhancing their personality and knowledge in the process.

Pinnacle

Can't Ace it until you Face it.

The flagship event of the managerial category, Pinnacle invites some amazing ideas in the form of a presentation that can showcase both the managerial as well as the personality of the participant.
